

(Comments from Type judge Linda Hogan)

A highlight of the Modesto show was the refreshing number of novice exhibitors which included nine in the finch division, one colorbred division, and three in the type division!

To recognize the novice exhibitors, after the regular judging, the novice birds, approximately 30 canaries, were re-benched for view, special comments, and finally placement..

Linda's blog is at: canarytales.blogspot.com