The Central California Cage Bird Club is a community of cage-bird enthusiasts open to anyone who is interested in the welfare of cage-birds. We are educators who work together to support and promote the humane treatment and care of all birds. We cooperate with regulatory agencies to protect practices that improve bird's welfare. At our monthly meetings we share information on breeding, feeding, housing, and training of cage-birds, as well as the prevention of illnesses in all varieties. We reach out through community events, 4-H groups and scouting troops by distributing information, and offering classes by request designed to improve the lives of pet birds, commercially sold cage-birds, and cage-birds being groomed for Show competition.

Hi Everybody!!

Just as we anticipated, our Easter Celebration was filled with good food, good folks, and lots and lots of plastic eggs! And jelly beans in hummingbird feeders, plant waterers filled with pretty flowers, blooming plants in mini-pots and a lovely purple Easter Lilly!

The adult-themed plastic eggs contained Scratchers! One brought in $20, and there were several $2 winners. The eggs were perfect hiding places for numbered tickets that matched a ticketed prize somewhere on a table. Along with everything mentioned above, there were dozens of gifts that ranged from a table water feature to plant decorations, and from a garden plaque to a bunny plate.

In the moments of quiet between the general laughter that flew around the table, we shared ideas on helping canary parents raise their young, and especially raising hatchlings without a mom bird, or when a bird parent is no longer interested. We've all faced those moments!

Our next meeting on May 19th will be a Road Trip to a pet pig rescue in Valley Springs! We will be able to tour the farm in the morning with Maggie, the rescue's founder. We'll learn how she put together this amazing facility, as well as the stories behind the animals we meet. I have been told that each pig has its own personal space which is marked by its very personal blanket. Maggie has said we can help them by bringing some old blankets from home to donate. We'll then have lunch in town, and prowl through the rock shop and any other fun places we discover.

From the Modesto area we'll be meeting at The Fruit Yard on Geer Road early enough to caravan north by 8:00 a.m. If this doesn't work for you, please call Julie at 209-648-3323 for an exact Valley Springs address.

And in June, we'll be having a Swap Meet featuring bird supplies, plants and themed items that we can buy-sell-trade to the public. If you have items to offer, please sign up with Julie for a table.

See you soon!!
